問題 1 次の英文を読んで下の各設問に答えなさい。(計 15 点)

You may meet Americans who know very little about your country. If so, be (①) with them. Unfortunately, (②) is taught about the cultures or customs of other countries in American schools. The United States has always been separated from other countries by the vast oceans to the East and West of the country. Consequently, Americans have not become so acquainted with different cultures and other ways of doing things in other countries. If Americans try to help you with something that is very familiar to you, if they mistake your country for another thousands of kilometers away, be (①) with them. The United States has developed into a modern nation in a very (③) time compared with many other countries – only about 300 years. Americans have been very busy with growth of the country, with building roads and cities, establishing free education for millions of children, and making inventions, discoveries, and developments to benefit the whole world. The nation's attention has been on (④), not on (⑤), during most of this 300-year period. ⑥It is only since World War Two that Americans have become more interested in other parts of the world.

注) customs 習慣 consequently その結果 acquainted 知っていて
establish 制定する benefit 益する

John, a very idle youth, called at his uncle's house and said to him, "Please find a simple good job for me. I hope ①the conditions for work are as follows: Work begins about ten in the morning. Cakes are served at half past ten. Meat or fish can be eaten for lunch. Tea is served at three. Work finishes about four in the evening. Work is only walking about at ease, taking a nap and doing anything I like. $ 40 is paid every day."

His uncle answered, "Oh, you have told me very selfish conditions. But as I am your uncle, I'll find you such work. An old friend of mine keeps a zoo. A tiger died a few days ago. You will play the part of a tiger in the skin of the dead tiger. You can have much the same conditions that you want."

The next day John was put in a cage and lay there. Suddenly he was surprised at an announcement. It said, "Now a deadly fight between a tiger and a lion begins." Soon a big lion was taken to his cage and put into it. John jumped back quickly and began to shake in fear. But the lion came near to him and said in a low voice, "Don't be afraid. I was hired for $ 40 a day, too."
